City Denies Park Use For MP Fete

The city council Tuesday night turned thumbs down on plans of the Menlo Park chamber of commerce to stage a 49er Centennial and Industrial Exposition at Burgess recreation park in June, but left the way open for the chamber to go ahead with the event at another site.

The council action was informal, since it was not taken at a regular meeting, but it was final so far as the chamber is concerned.

Lloyd Neumann, chamber of commerce president, said the organization would not press any further its original plan to hold the celebration at the municipal recreation area, and added:

"We still are going to have a celebration."

Councilmen in informal discussion indicated willingness to turn over the city parking plaza between Santa Cruz and Oak Grove avenues, site of last year's centennial celbration, for another like event, and it is expected that it will be

C'mon, Dads!

LEND A BIG HAND

C'mon, dads, limber up those muscles!

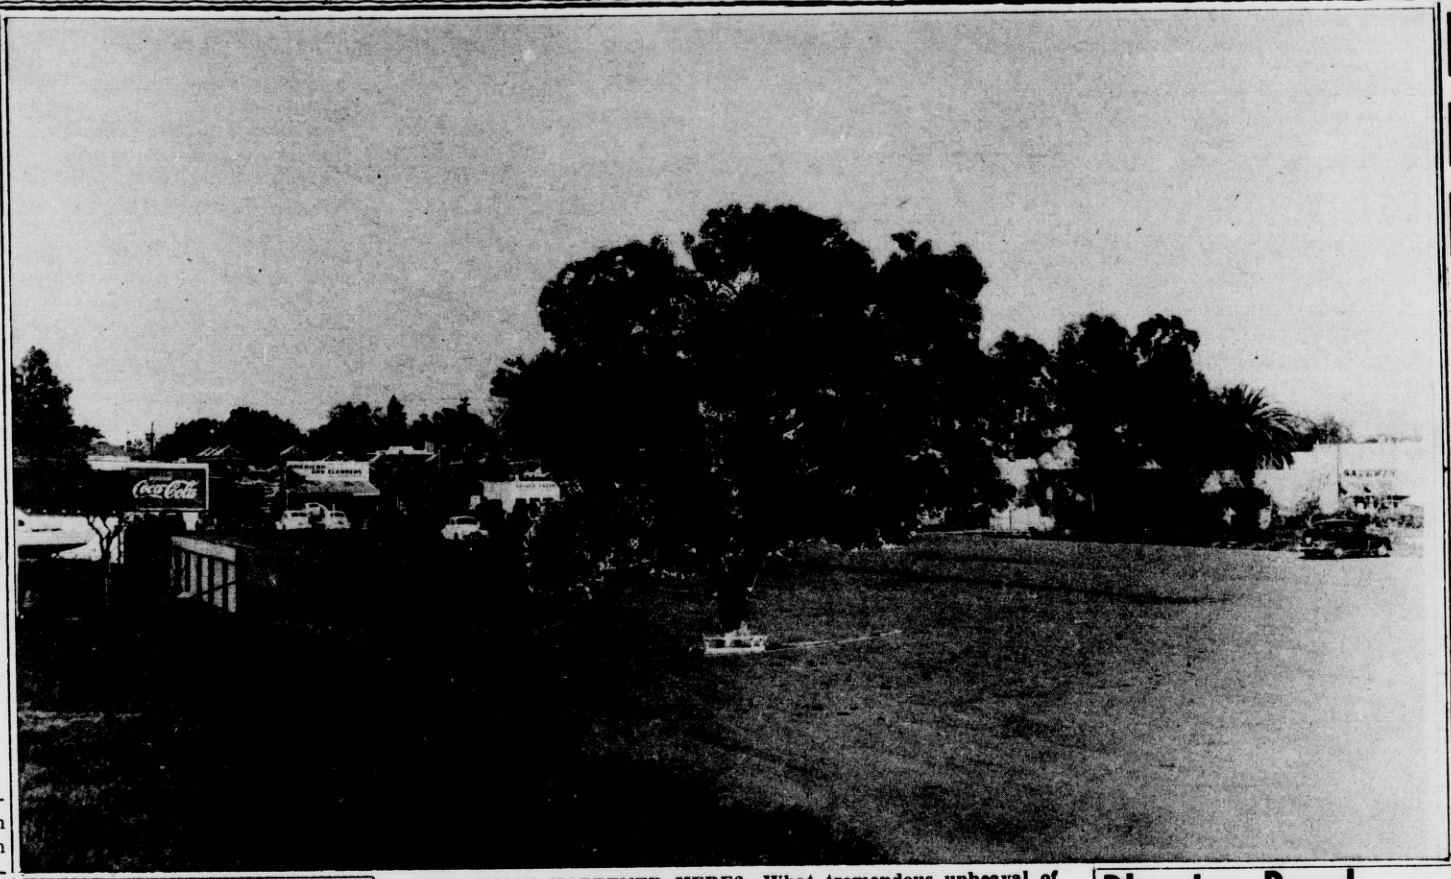

Mel Homfeld, Menlo Park school superintendent, issued a plea today for as many men as possible to show up at Central school grounds at 8 a.m. Saturday, April 2, to lend a hand in constructing 18 large outdoor picnic tables for use at Central, Fremont and Encinal schools.

The lumber is cut, ready for assembling, thanks to work of Bud Davenport and Bud Newport. The wherewithal was provided by the Parent-Teacher association, which raised $190 at a box supper dance at Encinal school.

All needed Saturday are men, muscles and an assortment of hammers, saws, planes and wrenches.

Incidentally, Homfeld, a pretty husky fellow himself, will be on hand tomorrow to pitch in on the job.

So, turn out, men.

HEY, WHAT HAPPENED HERE?—What tremendous upheaval of nature occurred overnight in Menlo Park's parking plaza? Didn't look like this last time we saw it; nothing there but a few automobiles and lots of wide open spaces. But cameras don't lie (at least not much) and this is what we found at the plaza today, a venerable oak in full foliage where there was nothing else before. Oh, well, mebbe the dateline at the top of the page has something to do with it all. —Menlo Camera Photo.

C. of C. To Hold 'Miss America' Contest In Menlo

Calling all Peninsula beauties!

The Menlo Park chamber of commerce announced yesterday it has received authorization to conduct the local Miss America contest to select an entry to the state finals at Santa Cruz, from which the state's candidate at the annual Atlantic City contest will be chosen.

B. Frank Thompson, chamber program director, said the group's franchise covers Palo Alto, Stanford university and all of San Mateo county save the city of San Mateo. Thus, the winner of the contest here will represent that area.

The Menlo Park Miss America Pageant will be held June 4, as a forerunner to the projected 49er Centennial and Industrial Exposition planned for June 19-25. The winner will be declared "Miss Peninsula" and will serve as queen of the centennial event, and will be a contestant at the Santa Cruz state finals June 10, 11 and 12.

Spring Cleanup Week Opens; City Offers Aid In Removing Rubbish

Spring Cleanup Week, aimed at fire prevention in Menlo Park and the rest of the Menlo Park fire district, gets under way Sunday and will last through Saturday, April 9, with public agencies lending their forces to help residents in the safety effort.

Officially proclaimed by Mayor Charles P. Burgess and Polk Dodson, acting chairman of the fire district commission, the week ties in with the annual issuance of burning permits. Old permits expire today, April 1, and are subject to renewal. New permits are required of persons who contemplate outdoor burning and who have not taken out permits previously.

All residents are urged to clean rubbish and all inflammable materials from lots, homes, garages and out buildings. Those who are able to do so are urged to transport rubbish to the county dump at the southern end of Bay road, open daily including Sundays from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. under supervision.

Menlo Park residents who are unable to transport rubbish to the dump should call the city hall, DA 3-9332, and city trucks will pick it up as soon as possible during spring cleanup week, save on Sunday April 3.

Residents in unincorporated areas who have sizable amounts of rubbish to be removed should call the fire district, DA 3-4848. The district's facilities for removal for limited, but it will do all possible to help, said Fire Marshal Ed Wickstrom.

Accumulated rubbish is regarded as a prime fire hazard, Wickstrom said. All old clothes, papers, old decorations, rags and various odds and ends should be cleaned out of buildings and disposed of, he said.

Burning permits, required for all outdoor trash burning, along with instructions, are available without cost at the three fire stations in the district.

Planning Board Okays Bayshore Commercial Zone

The Menlo Park planning commission Monday took action on two continued matters: Approved tentative zoning of lots along Bayshore highway in the Belle Haven-Suburban Park area for first class commercial use, and denied request of the Allied Arts Guild for a variance to construct a garden sales room.

More than 100 persons attended the session, which lasted to midnight.

Nearly 300 Belle Haven residents petitioned for zoning the Bayshore lots for residential use, contending a business district along the highway would be unnecessary. Persons favoring commercial zoning said lot owners should be protected in their investments. Under county zoning, the lots were second-class commercial prior to annexation to Menlo Park.

It was pointed out that when the Bayshore freeway is extended southward, the state will take over most of the lots.

Commissioners first voted on an R-3 zoning, which would permit large apartments and hotels. The proposal lost.

The commission then voted 8 to 1 for C-1 zoning, first class commercial, and Chairman Charles An-

Bowen, Cole In Sequoia Board Race

Kenneth L. Bowen, Atherton publisher, and Keith Cole, Redwood City photographer, yesterday filed candidacies with the county superintendent of schools for election to the Sequoia high school district board of trustees May 20.

Bowen and Cole made a joint announcement of candidacies, said they would run as a ticket and added they expect to have the support of the recently-formed Committee for Better Education, of which Bowen is a member.

The committee has announced it is seeking to back two candidates in accord with its views to oppose the incumbent trustees, Board Chairman W. W. Hilton and Morton Brewer, who already have filed for reelection.

Bowen and Cole stated they subscribe to the announced aims of the Committee for Better Education, which has taken sharp issue with policies of the present board of trustees, notably in conduct of student affairs.

Bowen, who resides at 42 San Benito avenue, is a former editor of the Redwood City Tribune, which he left in 1942 to enter the navy. He now is co-owner of a printing and textbook publishing firm in Millbrae. He is secretary of the Civic Interest League of Atherton and vice president of the Millbrae chamber of commerce and Optimist club.

He is a member of the American Legion, Masons and the First Methodist church, and is a Stanford graduate. He is 42, married and the father of two girls, one a Sequoia student. During the war he served as a navy beachmaster, participating in the landings at Iwo Jima and Okinawa.

Cole owns the Keith Cole Studio and Camera Shop in Redwood City, where he is active in civic affairs.

KEITH COLE

He recently was appointed chairman of the 1949 Community Chest drive. He served as a combat photographer in China in World War II.

He is a Tacoma, Wash. high school graduate and has resided in the Sequoia district since 1942 and for the last four years, has been photographer for the Sequoia high school annual. He served as chairman of a committee supporting the special school tax a year ago. Thirty years old, he is married and the father of two girls.

Cancer Fund Campaign Opens Today

Forces of mercy were in operation today in San Mateo county as the annual fund drive of the American Cancer society was launched on a month-long effort. The county's goal is $30,000, most of which is sought by direct mail contact.

Mrs. Ross L. Wilson, 341 Felton drive, Menlo Park drive chairman, and Mrs. Edward H. Heller, Atherton chairman, pointed to the need of a full response in order to carry on activities of the San Mateo county branch of the society.

Funds are used for direct aid to needy cancer sufferers, purchase of supplies, operation of an information center in San Mateo and support of the tumor consultative center at Mills hospital.

"The quota for Menlo Park is $1000 this year," Mrs. Wilson said. "Last year, $956 in society funds were spent here, while contributions were less than $900. It is vital that we reach the goal locally."

While most solicitation is by mail, coin containers are being placed at business firms.

Assisting Mrs. Wilson as finance chairman is Mrs. Jack Glunz. Her committee members are Mrs. Floyd Beach, Mrs. Thomas Cuff and Mrs. Ethel Sawtelle. Lieutenant Commander Ross L. Wilson is in charge of business firm solicitation.

HELP RAISE CANCER FUNDS—Under way today is the annual fund drive of the American Cancer society. Taking important parts in the San Mateo county campaign are Mrs. Edward H. Temple Building Plans Disclosed

Plans for a new temple structure in Menlo Park on Live Oak avenue near El Camino Real will be complete within two weeks, officials of the Menlo Park Temple association announce.

The building will be of two stories, 50 by 137 feet, on the association's lot on the southwest side of Live Oak, the announcement said. The ground floor and mezzanine will be used for commercial purposes and on the upper floor there will be a lodge hall with anterooms, a banquet hall, stage and kitchen.

A driveway and private parking area for 24 automobiles will be part of the project.

Members of the association board of directors and building committee are Otto A. Leydecker, Cecil L. Baxter, Samuel T. Bond, Frank S. Becker, Jonas R. Oberg and Ed McKinney. They are members of the Menlo Park Masonic lodge.

2 MP Burglaries Traced To Gang

Two Menlo Park burglaries committed Jan. 26 have been linked with the "bedspread burglary" ring rounded up this week in northern California, Police Chief George Potter said yesterday after he and the victimized residents checked loct at the Alameda county prison farm.

Potter said Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beausoleil, 1311 Crane street, identified a necklace and bracelet, and that Mrs. Irene Melskov, 1330 University drive, identified a fur coat, a bracelet, perfumes, salt and pepper shakers and a watch.

MP Fire District Ballots Monday

In the first contested election of the Menlo Park fire district in two years, residents who are registered voters will name a district commissioner on Monday, April 4.

Candidates are the incumbent commissioner, Polk Dodson of Ringwood Road, Menlo Oaks, and B. J. (Tex) Matsler, 315 Central avenue, North Palo Alto. Dodson was appointed a year ago to fill an unexpired term and now seeks his first full term.

Polls wil be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Monday at the three fire stations in the district: 1077 Merrill avenue, Menlo Park; 36 Almendral avenue, Atherton and 2084 Manhattan avenue, East Palo Alto.

As We See It . . .

CLEANUP WEEK BEGINS

Sunday marks the opening of Spring Cleanup Week in the City of Menlo Park and the Menlo Park fire district, affecting some 40,000 persons. What is accomplished during the seven-day period ending April 9 is going to play an important part in the lives of these residents. It may well mean the difference between a controlled hazard and an outbreak of blazes that could bring tragedy and heavy property loss.

The value of clearing both homes and lots of inflammable rubbish has been proven time and again. Underwriters and other fire prevention experts regard systematic cleanups as a prime means of fire prevention. Our fire district has an enviable record of prevention; its losses are low and the insurance rates are correspondingly so.

That excellent situation cannot continue, however, without public support. Fire prevention bureaus can do so much; they can't carry the ball alone.

Elsewhere in this issue of the RECORDER you will find detailed advice from experts on how to make your property safer by following the simple, common sense rules of cleaning up and burning up under proper conditions. We commend them to your attention.

ARMY DAY PROCLAMATION

The army and its activities may seem a bit remote to Menlo Park, inasmuch as it has had no nearby military establishment since the days of Camp Fremont. Unlike communities adjacent to army installations, army uniforms are rarities on our streets.

A bit of a reminder that the army nevertheless plays an important part in the life of every resident was issued this week when Mayor Burgess proclaimed April 9 as Army Day, in line with an observance in the Sixth army area.

As the proclamation points out, the "army of the United States has for its mission the protection of the right of the people to live in a free democracy and has preserved the liberty of our beloved country against all aggressors."

It says of the future, "the soldiers of our army are engaged in the task of building a firm, lasting security for all people who have suffered the tragedy of aggression and stand today as a powerful bulwark against aggressor nations around the globe."

All Menlo Park residents are asked in the proclamation to display the national colors on April 9 and as many as possible are urged to attend dedication ceremonies of the national guard armory in Redwood City on the same date.

City Salary Levels Discussed

By MAYOR CHAS. P. BURGESS

Thursday night of last week the mayors and managers of Peninsula cities held their regular bimonthly meeting for the discussion of problems of common interest. The principal subject of the evening was the obtaining of a more scientific approach to general salary adjustments, both up and down, for city employees. The problem of how a patrolman's salary should stand in relation to a street or park employee's was not under debate; the question was how much the general salary scales of the city should be revised up or down at budget time.

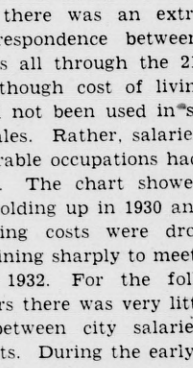

A committee headed by Mayor Haberlin of San Mateo recommended that Peninsula cities employ some unbiased and competent source, such as the Stanford Research Institute, to make a study of living costs and changes in wages in private employment in the area, and report periodically to the respective cities. Both administrators and employes were to participate in selecting the criterions of change. Then every budget-time the research agency could inform all cities that salaries should be increased 7 per cent, or salaries should be reduced 4½ per cent, or whatever percentage change the common denominator might indicate.

One objection raised was that cities might not find it possible to follow such findings. In a period of inflation a 10 per cent salary increase could be indicated, yet the city might not have the taxing power available to meet the salary budget this increase would require. Conversely, when in a severe depression many taxpayers were on the streets selling apples, could an indicated 6 per cent salary cut satisfy these taxpayers who point enviously to the relative security of the city employe's job. In short, if an agreement were reached with city employees to tie the salary level to some indicator, could a city government offer its employees any real assurance that such agreement could be kept over future years in the face of political and economic pressures?

An interesting chart was exhibited showing the average salary of San Mateo city employees from 1928 through 1948, in comparison with a cost of living index. Very curiously there was an extremely close correspondence between the two curves all through the 21-year period, although cost of living indexes had not been used in setting salary scales. Rather, salaries paid in comparable occupations had been the basis. The chart showed city salaries holding up in 1930 and 1931 when living costs were dropping, then declining sharply to meet these costs in 1932. For the following eight years there was very little deviation between city salaries and living costs. During the early 1940's living costs advanced much more rapidly than city salaries, which however began rising sharply in 1945 and in 1947 actually outstripped living costs. Then in 1948 the two lines met again.

The representatives at the gathering agreed to submit the proposal to their respective city councils and report back to the joint congress of peninsula mayors and managers at the May meeting.

Education Committee Challenged On 'Lack of Democracy'

Editor's Note: Board of trustees of the Sequoia Union high school district has issued a reply to a statement made public last week by the Committee for Better Education in connection with the school board election May 20. In the public interest and to present both sides of an issue, the RECORDER herewith publishes the board's statement:

"To the citizens of the Sequoia high school district:

"The Committee for Better Education, in outlining its statement of policy on the issues involved in the forthcoming high school trustees' election, writes at length implying that there is a lack of democratic practice at Sequoia. Has a single member of the committee been present at a meeting of the faculty, a meeting of the student body council, a meeting of the student body commissioners, or a class meeting? How can the committee presume to speak of those things of which they know not? Citizens who have attended such meetings have been unanimous in their opinion that they have seen democracy at work.

"The practice of democracy includes the recognition of an obligation to live within the framework of orderly government; to recognize that for every right and privilege, there is a corresponding obligation and duty; to recognize the difference between liberty and petulant self will; to recognize that democracy means a rule of the people expressed through the opinion of the majority.

"The committee apparently advocates permitting 13 to 17 year olds to pursue their individual impulses without restraint. For example, they state, "No attempt should be made to stifle the thinking of youngsters." We ask, not even if the thinking is wrong? Not even if the thinking is irreligious, irreverant of home, family, country, honesty, integrity, loyalty, or of the duties and responsibilities of good citizenship? There is a distinct difference between direction of thought and stifling of thought which the committee apparently does not grasp.

"Teaching means the direction of students' thinking toward desirable objectives which may be the mastery of specific bodies of information of the appreciation of the contributions of the past in its relationship to the present. The development of skills, attitudes, ideals, and concepts requires direction. Education is a product of nurture as well as nature. No thoughtful parents would agree to the theory of 'hands off!' in the rearing of their child at home, for lack of control is recognized as a prime cause of juvenile delinquency. If home control and direction of children is desirable, does it not follow that school control and direction of children is also desirable?

"Again, the committee states, 'Any curtailment of their (students) speech, verbal or written, should be only to insure accuracy.' We ask, does the committee mean that if the sentence structure is correct, that regardless of content, viewpoint, social or moral consequence, the youngster should be permitted to write or say whatever pops into his mind?

"The survey of Dr. Almack was the basis upon which the present board instituted changes this past summer that it proposes as only the beginning of the overhaul that Sequoia has so long needed. The first step was to restore the administrative responsibility of the school to administrators and teaching responsibilities to the teachers. A few disgruntled teachers have resented this action of the board, but the great majority of the teaching staff are much happier to receive their directions from one principal than from a half dozen would-be powers behind the throne. No business can be successfully run without competent management, and competent management requires training and experience. Competent management cannot be had with divided responsibility.

"The committee asks for a fair deal for Sequoia. That is the objective of the present board of trustees, and a first step to this end was taken this summer. It can only be fully realized when every person connected with the school recognizes and performs the tasks for which he is responsible. These tasks may be simply stated as follows:

"Students—to learn.

"Teachers—to teach.

"Administrators—to administer.

"Board of trustees—to represent the will of the people and to discharge those duties outlined for them in the education code.

"BOARD OF TRUSTEES,
Sequoia Union High School
"W. W. Hilton,
"Morton S. Brewer,
"Clifton H. Woodhams,
"Chas. P. Burgess,
Merritt R. Hosmer."

HOW YOU GET YOUR TELEPHONE ADDRESS

Your number guides a call to you from across the nation almost as quickly as you can walk next door

1. Your voice highway—a pair of tiny wires—is labeled with your telephone number at this central office distributing frame. From here, the wires lead out of the office, through cables, to your telephone. They also go the other way—on into a special section of complex equipment that has the specific job of handling your calls.

2. Picking your number is a job for trained people. From their charts they find an available pair of wires in a cable to your neighborhood. The volume of calls carried by the central office equipment serving your number is often checked to see if it has the capacity to handle added calls. This is part of our job of making telephone service reliable and efficient.

3. Someone calls your number . . . and, in a matter of moments, you pick up your receiver to answer. Perhaps the call is from just across the street. Perhaps it comes half-way around the earth. But your number guided it to your telephone . . . and no other. Seems almost like magic when you think of it . . . another of the little things that add up to good telephone service for you.

4. A lot of new numbers have been added in the past few years. For today there are twice as many telephones in use on the Coast as ten years ago. All these new telephones make yours more valuable. You can reach more people . . . more can reach you. Yet rates remain low. A few pennies still buy a call—a real value in these days of high prices.

GETTING READY TO LEAVE—Lieutenant Leroy Hubbard of the Atherton police department hung up his uniform this week . . . but only temporarily. Hubbard, a veteran officer and one of the most popular on the Peninsula, has been selected to attend the FBI police school in Washington, D.C., which is conducted from April to June 30. Crippled Children Fund Drive Lags

The current Easter Seal drive to raise funds to aid San Mateo county's crippled children is still far short of its 1949 goal of $40,000, according to S. D. Merk, president of the county Crippled Children's Society.

Merk said that the 40,000 letters each containing 100 Easter seals, sent out to local residents 10 days ago, have so far not produced the anticipated return.

"We expected to receive a good response to our mail campaign," Merk said, "But to date the total amount mailed back to our offices is considerably less than previous years."

He further stated that unless more seals are purchased, the program to help stricken youngsters may be seriously curtailed next year.

CCPT 17th District Board Meets April 4

This is a change from the regular meeting day, the second Monday of each month, which would be in the week of Easter vacation. Information on the Seventeenth district convention, and the State convention, is to be given.

CADET GLENN HATLEY

MP Cadet Signs For Air Training

(Special to the RECORDER)

SHERMAN, Tex.—Glenn L. Hatley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hatley, 840 College ave., Menlo Park, was the first cadet to register for the new 50-A class at Perrin air base here. He has begun 22 weeks of basic training and upon receiving his wings will go into advanced training for 30 weeks.

Hatley was graduated from Sequoia high school in 1944, took a year of training at the merchant marine school at Coyote point, attended San Jose State college for a year and then worked for a time as an electronics technician before joining the air force.

He was an outstanding high jumper on the Sequoia and San Jose State track teams.

Wanta Help?

War Declared On Mosquitos

The annual war on mosquitos is beginning and residents of Menlo Park and the area can be of help.

R. H. Thomas, superintendent of the Pulgas mosquito abatement district, urged residents having fish ponds to cooperate with his office in this manner:

Pools containing water but no fish are breeding places for mosquitos. If you have such a pool, contact the district and it will make an inspection, and, if the resident wishes, provide fish free of charge.

Usually there are no mosquito larvae in a pool containing fish, but if wrigglers are observed in the pool, the district should be notified and abatement work will be done.

Even goldfish, Thomas pointed out, can prevent mosquito breeding by their presence in a pond.

The abatement district, which includes Menlo Park and Atherton and unincorporated areas between the bay and Portola road, has headquarters in the county courthouse, Redwood City. Telephone is EMerson 6-5711, extension 225.

Sequoia Bonds Set At $2,150,000

Trustees of the Sequoia Union high school district last week set at $2,150,000 the amount of a bond issue to be submitted to voters at the May 20 election.

Added to the $1,250,000 approved last year, the sum would be used to build an 800-student south county high school in Menlo Park instead of the 600-student project first planned; for improvements at Sequoia high school in Redwood City and for construction of a third plant in the San Carlos-Belmont area.

Next step before the May 20 voting will be appointment of a citizens' committee to work for approval of the $2,150,000 issue.

Mayor Charles P. Burgess of Menlo Park, a Sequoia district trustee, made the motion setting the amount of the bond issue.

Belle Haven School Gets New Sandboxes

Three sandboxes were presented this week to pupils of the new Belle Haven grad school in Ravenswood school district as the result of efforts of a group of fathers.

The fathers worked last Sunday constructing the boxes, and hope to build more playground equipment to help meet needs until the district has sufficient funds to provide complete playground facilities.

CENTENNIAL

the site of the 49er Centennial and Industrial Exposition.

B. Frank Thompson, celebration manager and chamber program director, said that a general meeting of the chamber will be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday, April 5, in city council chambers, to discuss the fete. All local service clubs, civic groups, fraternal organizations, churches and other interested groups are being invited to send delegates to join the discussion, he said.

The council action was regarded as a bit unusual, in that it came out of an informal meeting. However, Mayor Charles P. Burgess said that this course was taken in order to give the chamber an immediate answer so that it could make its plans accordingly.

Thompson had written the council March 29, outlining plans for the celebration, including a professional carnival, and asking permission to use the city recreation area including the gymnasium and Little theater for the celebration from June 19 through 25. He asked for a "prompt decision".

"Four members of the city council met informally with the city manager Tuesday night to discuss administrative matters, and later in the evening to meet with the recreation commission," Burgess' statement said.

"At the meeting, the manager read a letter from the chamber of commerce asking the use of the city gymnasium and theater and adjacent recreation grounds for a week-long centennial celebration to be held in June. The celebration was to be similar to that held last year, with the addition of the Foley and Burke carnival.

"The letter asked prompt consideration. As our next council meeting was not to be held until April 12, we decided to give an informal expression of our views to the chamber.

"All four councilmen present were opposed to the proposal in varying degres. In general, it was felt that the centennial was a promotional and commercial activity, and thus did not qualify for the use of a city-owned recreation park. If the recreational theme were paramount, such as would be the case in a pageant or parade, the matter might be different.

"But the commercial aspects were paramount last year, and a professional carnival group is to be added this time.

"The city manager was requested to write a letter conveying to the chamber the attitude of the council. Such action as was taken was purely informal for the chamber's information, and the chamber is free to bring the matter before us at our regular meeting April 12."

BAYSHORE ZONING

drews said the commission will give later notice of a meeting on zoning of the area.

The commission, after an open discussion and caucus, recommended against a variance to permit the Allied Arts Guild to construct a new sales room to replace a smaller existing building. Opponents of the request objected that increased traffic would result.

In another action, the commission set April 18 as date for hearing on a use permit for the Idle Hour beer parlor, which seeks a new site at 1029 Merrill street.

'MISS AMERICA'

Numerous prizes will be given the Menlo Park contest winner.

Thompson said the contest is based on talent and intelligence as well as beauty, and that it will open the way to possible fame via the radio, movies and stage and opportunity to compete for scholarships.

Girls who will be 18 by next September are eligible to compete, Thompson said. He urged them to write the chamber of commerce centennial headquarters, Box 357, Menlo Park.

The sudden death of Mrs. John Hemsey, long-standing member of the East Palo Alto Grange, caused the cancellation of the projected April Fool "turn-about" night on the 5th. Instead, there will be a memorial service in her honor and a guest speaker on credit unions, according to Mrs. Eric Davies, home economics president.

Plans for the evening were made at the home of Mrs. Sid Goodnow, lecturer, who was assisted in her entertaining by Mrs. Deveral Andrus, on Thursday last.

Other plans for the group will be their assistance tomorrow night in serving the cookies they will provide, and taking part in the coming Cancer drive. Mrs. J. W. Jedlicka was made chairman of this new committee.

Mrs. Eugene Kleiner, Mrs. Arthur Nobbs and newly-elected president of the Willow P-TA, Mrs. Harry Caplain represent their group at the parliamentarian classes now being conducted by the 17th District CPTA in the Park school in Burlingame.

The Ravenswood P-TA contingent is seven, headed by just-elected president, Mrs. H. Jack Denton, and her officers, Mrs. Paul Mezzapelle, Mrs. Donald Walker, Mrs. Eric Davies, Mrs. Claude Nelson, Mrs. Chris Roman and Mrs. Charles Grover.

Ravenswood Cub Pack 3 was enriched by four new Bobcats at their March Pack meeting recently. They were Stephen Brohmer, Stephen Smith, James Doppee, and Gerald Pocan.

Service stars were received by Frank Carr, Charles McKenna, Edward Lawrence, Russell Ellis, Ronald Dale, Ronald Day and Ronald Kanazawa.

The Mothers and the Fathers of Den Three were also honored at the Pack 3 meeting. Cubmaster Bill Cole received his Cubmaster pin and a two-year pin; Mrs. Charles Grover received her two year pin; Don Walker and Mrs. Walker received three year pins; Walker, Committee Chairman Bill Jones and Hardy Ellis received committee pins.

New Den Mothers who received their pins were Mrs. Chris Roman, Mrs. Deveral Andrus, Mrs. Dewey Chaney, Mrs. Frank Hutcheson and Mrs. Frank McKenna.

The evening was rounded out by movies shown by Walt Sjosten and cookies and soda pop served by the committee.

This week's schort on personal gossip and NEXT week is going to be REALLY busy, with every night somethin' doin' and on Wednesday Mrs. John Clark is entertaining her Ravenswood P-TA executive board at a luncheon and final meeting of the year at Rickey's. Let you know next week who wore the fanciest hat.

News Of Stanford Village

Correspondent:
VIRGINIA HEARN — DA 3-6315

To stimulate group activities, 20 members of unit 201-203, Middlefield, held a party last Friday at the apartment of Walt and Jean Nagle.

Another area party was that planned by unit 201-203, El Camino, as a farewell luncheon for Marjorie Eddy. Group members and other friends presented Mrs. Eddy with a lovely robe as a memento.

Several other families also moved from the Village last week. Ed and Mary Lear drove to Florida, where Mr. Lear will teach engineering. He completed work for a master's degree in engineering last quarter. They have four-year-old twins, Jack and Jean.

Florine and Ron Price went to Oakland where they will live until finding a home in San Francisco. Mr. Price, a Business School graduate, will join the Emporium staff.

Their neighbors, Marge and Jack Holland, have returned to their home in New York. Having also completed Business School, Mr. Holland plans to go into business in New York City.

Operated upon Friday for removal of a bobby pin lodged in her intestine, three-year old Charlotte Chase is improving. She is in the Palo Alto hospital. She is the daughter of Lily and Charles Chase.

Ernest O'Byrne is at the Palo Alto hospital also. He underwent an operation on his leg, hit by a sniper during the war. He will be hospitalized half a year.

RAVENSWOOD P-TA ARRANGES TWO SPECIAL PROGRAMS

Accomplishments of the children of Ravenswood school district will be shown parents at two special "nights" at the school this weekend. On April 1 it will be "Father-Son" night, with dads and boys attending. On Saturday, April 2, "mother-daughter" will be the order of the evening.

Jack Farrell, playground director for San Mateo county at Ravenswood school, has planned the events with the aid of the South East San Mateo County Recreation association and its member organizations.

Trampoline, boxing, tumbling and amateur performers are scheduled for the Friday night entertainment. Added interest will be exhibition bouts by high school students.

Willie Slater will be MC.

Mrs. Henry Garton will be mistress of ceremonies for the girls show, which will include trampoline, tumbling and folk dancing exhibitions and singing by the Ravenswood school girls chorus under direction of Warren Bohn.

Las Lomitas P-TA To Elect April 7

New officers will be elected and installed at monthly meeting of the Las Lomitas Parent-Teacher association at the school at 2:30 p.m. Thursday, April 7.

Mrs. William Ripley is retiring president.

School Activities

On March 24, the Central fifth grade visited the Menlo Park police station. Chief Potter and officer De'Ocampo gave us a talk on safety rules for bicycle riding.

Next came demonstrations of how finger prints are made. Chief Potter and De'Ocampo showed how burglars leave prints on window frames or table tops which do not show until they are dusted with a special kind of carbon mixture. Then the prints show clearly and can be lifted off on to a transparent tape and be kept for police use.

The children were shown the dark room where pictures are developed. The special red and yellow lights were explained, as were the files, the teletype messages, and the police radio system.

The boys were fascinated by the arsenal, tear gas weapons, handcuffs, and the police motorcycle.

Chief Potter explained to the children the need for safety rules and how children should follow these rules at all times. He held a discussion period, and answered their questions about the duties and activities of the police department.

The splendid cooperation on the part of the police department helps the children to realize their own responsibility to help uphold safety regulations and to cooperate with the police department in serving our community.

This is the fifth class that the Menlo Park police have entertained this year.

THE FIRST GRADE

The first grade at Fremont school has been appointing different monitors for different things. Each week they appoint new monitors. They have been studying about all different kinds of dogs and what they can do. They like to work with paint, clay, and blocks. They also learn how to sing different songs.

—Dianne Pritchard.

NEW LIBRARY

The fifth grade has a library. Our librarian Joanne Felkner has a card in each book. We put our name on a card. Then we can take the book home. We have to bring the book back the next day. Some children brought books to school for the library. We have all kinds of books.

—Barry Johnson.

SOCIAL STUDIES PROJECT

Recently in social studies, Mrs. Rogers' class had a study on three types of government. They were, city and county, state and federal. For extra information, the state group wrote to different states for literature on their particular type of government.

One of the most interesting pieces of literature was obtained by Wilma Sprinkle on the unicameral legislature in Nebraska. Other detailed and complete information was obtained from Illinois by Betty Mosher.

—Anthony Lum.

SANTA CRUZ MOUNTAINS

The fifth grade at Fremont school have been sketching pictures of the Santa Cruz mountains. The first time we sketched the class used sketching pencils only. The second time we took the paper off our color crayons, broke them in pieces and sketched with them.
